

Children Just Love a Coconut Oil Shampoo

Nothing is quite so good for their hair. The cleansing, soothing, healing effects of its fine, rich, white, creamy lather keep their hair in perfect condition. Care devoted to their hair while young means beautiful, thick, glossy hair when older.

Don't neglect your children's hair—treat it with regular shampooing with HAY'S COCONUT OIL SHAMPOO. It will keep it fine, soft, glossy, free from dandruff, dirt and dust and away from many times over in later life. Will not dry out the natural oil of the hair, so can be used as frequently as desired.

Get a sample today and be convinced—see at your druggist's. He will refund your money if not satisfactory. Always ask for HAY'S COCONUT OIL SHAMPOO.

Our Corned Beef includes little Lean Rumps at only 22c a lb.

FIRE PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION

Property Owners Favor Purchase of Chemical Wagon and Fund Has Been Started—Fire Protective Association Organized Last Night.

Taftville has taken the first step towards better fire protection. At a meeting in Ponemah hall on Thursday evening a number of the property holders of the village organized a fire protective association with Antoine Paquette at the head as president.

Frank B. Ricketson, who owns a small engine house could be erected to accommodate the chemical wagon. Several others have volunteered their services as carpenters to assist in the erection of the building.

At the meeting Thursday night Omer Teller, Joseph C. Maran and David Polson were appointed a committee to confer with Mr. Ricketson in regard to the building of the engine house. This committee will also canvass the property owners for contributions and will make a report to the association at a meeting to be held later.
